XCEO Celebrates 10-Year Anniversary

XCEO Inc., a consultancy serving boards of directors and current or aspiring executives, is celebrating the 10th year of its incorporation.

Dr. Curtis Crawford, president and CEO of XCEO, said: "We are very excited about this anniversary. We have grown tremendously over the last 10 years, having gone from publishing our first book, 'Corporate Rise,' to providing a full suite of consulting and mentoring products and services. Even as our offerings have developed, however, our mission to support and develop enlightened boards and directors has remained unchanged."

Michelle Ronco, program director, Corporate Governance and Board Leadership Development, stated: "For the last 10 years, we have endeavored to inspire the pursuit of maximum boardroom effectiveness through personal leadership. We have designed products and services that are practically applied through our enlightened governance consulting, board succession and professional mentoring services. In addition, we have built what we are confident is the best board portal on the market, BoardPortal PLUS®, which allows us to deliver tremendous value to our clients. It has been a great pleasure to work with many excellent boards, directors, CEOs and governance professionals, and to make a difference in boardrooms around the world. We appreciate the support from our clients and our network, and we remain steadfast in our efforts to continue to advance governance and personal leadership."

"I am personally very proud of XCEO's record over the last 10 years," Crawford added. "We represent the gold standard in the industry for the quality and level of service we provide, and we are building on that record of enlightened governance and extreme personal leadership to deliver even greater value in XCEO's next decade."
