XCEO Solves Board Directors' and Officers' Questionnaire Needs With Hassle-Free Solution

XCEO Inc., the premier governance and leadership partner for boards of directors and executives, announces the release of its comprehensive, easy-to-use, online Directors & Officers (D&O) Questionnaire Review.

The D&O Questionnaire Review was developed with input from XCEO partners to solve the difficulties inherent in traditional D&O surveys. As with every XCEO offering, Enlightened Governance(TM) forms the centerpiece of the D&O Questionnaire Review through integration with Board Point(TM).

The D&O Questionnaire Review is considerably more efficient, pleasant and easy to use than other methods for completing D&O surveys, with benefits for both the corporate secretary and directors.

Using the D&O Questionnaire Review saves the corporate secretary hours of labor over paper surveys, as it negates the need to organize and mail paper surveys, search for errors in completed surveys, or compile the results by hand. In addition, XCEO's high-security environment and safeguards dramatically reduce the risks that accompany all paper surveys.

Individual directors using the D&O Questionnaire Review appreciate its superior user experience, convenience and ease of use. It liberates directors from the tedium of waiting for the survey to come in the mail, flipping through thick piles of paper, and mailing it back. Instead, they enjoy a tailored, complete and timely process that they can finish whenever and wherever it suits them, using whatever device they prefer.

Boards that use the D&O Questionnaire Review benefit from its seamless integration into Board Point, the embodiment of XCEO's vision of a unified, tailored board partnership that encompasses all aspects of governance.

Mary Pat Kelsey, regional director, Board Governance and Personal Leadership, said, "With the D&O Questionnaire Review, our partners can efficiently and effectively satisfy independence regulations as part of a comprehensive process that fully addresses their governance needs."
