XCEO Promotes Belen E. Gomez to Program Manager for Professional Mentoring and Personal Leadership Development

XCEO, Inc. announces Belen E. Gomez has been promoted to Program Manager for Professional Mentoring and Personal Leadership Development.

Ms. Gomez will be responsible for the planning and development of XCEO's Individual and Corporate Professional Mentoring Programs. The professional mentoring programs are designed to most effectively provide one-on-one career analysis and guidance to high-potential individuals. XCEO's individual and corporate professional development services consist of a variety of individual and group professional mentoring programs, led by Dr. Curtis J. Crawford and the XCEO team. XCEO collaborates with all clients to assure that they achieve an extraordinary high-level of success.

Dr. Crawford, President and CEO of XCEO, says, "During the past four years, Belen has been an integral part of all the exciting developments at XCEO. Her contributions to our success are literally branded all over the firm. As the Program Manager, Professional Mentoring and Personal Leadership Development, Belen will add significant support to each client. I am delighted that she will be partnering with me to continue delivering an incomparable level of service to our professional mentoring clients".

Ms. Gomez joined the XCEO team in 2006 and previously served as the Brand Manager and Research Project Manger. Ms. Gomez earned a BS in Psychology from Santa Clara University in Santa Clara, California in 2006. She is currently completing the MBA program at Santa Clara University. Before joining the XCEO team, she worked for SRI International.
