Corporate Governance Consulting Firm XCEO Inc. Announces Theresa B. Kiernan Joins XCEO Team as Program Director, Public Sector Governance and Board Leadership Development

Written by XCEO, Inc.

SANTA CLARA, Calif./EWorldWire/Oct. 27, 2010 --- Corporate governance consulting firm XCEO Inc. announces Theresa B. Kiernan has joined the XCEO team as Program Director, Public Sector Governance and Board Leadership Development.

Ms. Kiernan is responsible for developing and maintaining the programs and tools to assist public sector entities such as nonprofit, foundation and university boards in the area of board governance and leadership.

Dr. Curtis J. Crawford, president and CEO of XCEO, says, "It is with great enthusiasm that I welcome Theresa to the XCEO leadership team. In her role, as the Program Director for Public Sector Governance and Board Leadership Development, Theresa will lead our efforts to expand the reach and application of all of our leadership products and services. Her breadth of experiences in the nonprofit market segment, and corporate organizations, will help our clients improve their board effectiveness and mitigate risk to accomplish their missions."

Prior to joining the XCEO team, Ms. Kiernan worked in a nonprofit executive management role for membership and non-membership driven nonprofit organizations such as St. Catherine School, Leadership Gilroy and San Jose Jazz. With her leadership, communication, team building and creative skills she would go outside the box to drive successful outcomes. Her polished professional skills afford her opportunities to hold key board positions and committee roles with the local Rotary Club of Morgan Hill, Rotary District 5170, Leadership Morgan Hill and Mt. Madonna YMCA.

In addition to her nonprofit experience, Ms. Kiernan also worked as a corporate trainer for many Fortune 500 companies including Eastman Kodak, Xerox Corporation, and Chase Bank, training their employees for key leadership roles within the company. She presented an array of programs covering various topics all designed and delivered to enhance employees effectiveness and productivity.

Kiernan earned her B.S. in Business Administration from Keuka College in Keuka Park, N.Y.
